

Entrepreneurial Resources Group

Senior Executives * Proven Results

HEHIR Michael

Michael Hehir has had a distinguished career in the information services and technology industries. He is the past Chairman and CEO of The Rand McNally Corporation, where he is credited with engineering the company's turnaround from a brand and profitability standpoint.

Prior to that, he served in senior executive roles at The McGraw-Hill Companies, first as CFO, then as President of several of their divisions.

Michael holds a BA in mathematics from St. John's University and an MBA in corporate finance from New York University.