

Jean-Marie Hurtiger

GENERAL MANAGER -

INTERNATIONAL DEVELOPMENT - MAJOR PROJECTS

SUMMARY:

Jean-Marie Hurtiger has over 20 years' experience managing vehicle projects and automotive companies overseas in Latin America, Eastern Europe and Asia, especially Korea. The projects allowed the conquest of new international markets and have been supported by the creation of local engineering units closer to the markets.

EXPERIENCE

- Commercial Vehicles Div. Dir. Renault: 15.6% market share in Europe, 392,000 vehicles / year.
- Renault Samsung Motors CEO (Renault – Samsung JV) TO 2010: $ 3.6 Bil; 7,000 employees; 300,000 veh / year
- Dacia-Logan project director: 4 variants of the Logan program launched in Romania and Russia, Morocco, Colombia, Iran and Brazil. Managed budget: € 890m.
- Renault-Columbia CEO (Sofasa): TO $ 600 million, 1000 employees: 30,000 veh / year
- Sales Manager CIS / Baltic States
- Director International Projects
- Director of the group "DELTA" : re-engineering of Renault vehicle development process

MAJOR SKILLS

- Multicultural management in Asia, negotiations, leadership, integration of processes and organizations
- Large Project management, product definition and product/process engineering, supply chain management, industrial and commercial launches
- Lean manufacturing, quality control
- Strategic development and business planning

EDUCATION AND LANGUAGES

- 1993 INSEAD / CEDEP MBA Fontainebleau
- 1973 MS Ecole des PONTS-Paritech Paris
- Bilingual English, Spanish and German

PROFESSIONAL BACKGROUND

- Renault SAS Paris, France, (2011-2012)
- Renault Samsung Motors, Seoul, Korea (2006-2011)
- Renault / Dacia, Paris - France, Pitesti - Romania (1999-2005)
- Renault / Sofasa, Bogota, Colombia (1997-1999)
- Renault SAS, Paris, France (1988-1996)
- EXXON, Port-Jerome, Paris, France (1980-1988)
- Woodward-Clyde, Chicago, IL, USA (1978-1980)
- Coyne and Bellier, Paris, France (1973-1977)